

War - Home Activity Planner (Major)

Task	Example
1 What do you understand by the term PROPAGANDA? Make a copy of a famous poster used for PROPAGANDA.				http://www.ww1propaganda.com/ww1-poster/ammunition-and-remember-bonds-buy-bullets

Poster showing a soldier with a machine gun in the heat of battle, reaching out for ammunition.

Task	Example
2 Make a COLLAGE of images of people doing everyday things during WW1 or WW2 (or both!). What do you think it would be like under war conditions?				The Woolmore Street British Restaurant works on a self-service basis, with diners taking their plates to the counter to be served. Here we see 77 year old T Hambly receiving his lunch from one of the 'dinner ladies'

The Woolmore Street British Restaurant works on a self-service basis, with diners taking their plates to the counter to be served. Here we see 77 year old T Hambly receiving his lunch from one of the 'dinner ladies'

Task	Example				Links
3 Make a copy of your favourite painting by a WW1 artist. Paul Nash is a good example as are David Bomberg, Wyndham Lewis and Christopher R. W. Nevinson.				Paul Nash Spring in the Trenches, Ridge Wood, 1917 (1918), collection of the Imperial War Museum, London

Paul Nash
Spring in the Trenches, Ridge Wood, 1917 (1918), collection of the Imperial War Museum, London

Task	Example
4 Draw a 'mock-up' of what you might like your final COMPOSITION to look like...do you want it to look flat (2D) or 3D?				Examples of year 7 work

Examples of year 7 work

Task	Example
5 At the end of the First World War artists and sculptors increasingly turned their attention to public expressions of remembrance. In this painting which was one of three works painted to mark the Peace Conference in Paris in 1919, Orpen deliberately focuses on the "forgotten" ordinary soldiers rather than the politicians he saw arguing over the peace terms. Draw/paint a picture to show REMEMBRANCE for the victims of war.				William Orpen To the Unknown British Soldier in France

William Orpen
To the Unknown British Soldier in France

Task	Example
6 This painting was one of the first based on first-hand experience of the conflict seen by the British public. It received huge public acclaim and generated much sympathy for the British soldiers on the Western Front.				Eric Kennington The Kensingtons at Laventie

Eric Kennington
The Kensingtons at Laventie