

Identity - Home Activity Planner (Major)

Task	Example	What will I learn?	What will I be assessed on?	Some hints (PLTS)!	Links
1 What objects/images can you collect that tell us something about you and your interests (badges/trophies/pet etc)? Draw 2 of them using full shade (TONE). List 5 words to describe yourself. Explain why you have used these words.		How to use shade (TONE) and to describe myself.	Your ability to research images and to draw (record) from observation.	You can use words to describe your character as well as what you look like! How can you show your hobbies and interests?	Literacy link Why is a list useful?

Task	Example	What will I learn?	What will I be assessed on?	Some hints (PLTS)!	Links
2 How can you draw a member of your family sitting (they could be reading, watching TV etc)? Try using a ball point pen. How does it differ from using a pencil? You may hatch/cross hatch .		How to draw from direct observation and use materials to show	Your ability to use hatching/cross hatching	You can use more than one page in your book... experiment..... try drawing from different angles!

Task	Example	What will I learn?	What will I be assessed on?	Some hints (PLTS)!	Links
3 Research FACIAL EXPRESSIONS (can you tell us 5 interesting things about them?). Draw a self portrait where you are expressing an emotion (anger, sadness, etc.). Use different pencil marks to create a sense of expression (TEXTURE).		How to use pencil expressively.	Your skill in showing different ways of using a pencil	How many faces can you "pull"? Maybe you could photograph them and stick them in your book...could be interesting!	Literacy link What's the best way to present your interesting facts?

Task	Example	What will I learn?	What will I be assessed on?	Some hints (PLTS)!	Links
4 How does Kathy Kollwitz show LIGHT in her work? Research her work paying attention to LIGHT and make a study (copy) showing that you understand how she uses shade.		How to research and understand the work of an artist.	How well you are able to show that you understand the information that you find out about your artist	Notice how Kollwitz makes one side of the face darker and the other lighter. Why do you think she does this?	http://www.masterworksfineart.com/inventory/kollwitz/

Literacy link

Use your paragraphing poster to help

Task	Example	What will I learn?	What will I be assessed on?	Some hints (PLTS)!	Links
5 Design and/or make a 'clock of wishes'...this should have 12 wishes for your future. Place these in order. Create images that SYMBOLISE your wishes (a training shoe could be used if you want to show being a sportsperson).		How to show original ideas creatively	How well you can show/make an original object that communicates your ideas	You can make each hour a segment.....

Task	Example	What will I learn?	What will I be assessed on?	Some hints (PLTS)!	Links
6 Write a homework task for your class (they don't have to do it but you do!). The task should be linked to the theme ' Who Am I? '..... You could use the format of this planner to help you (what will I learn etc)		How to organise your thoughts in a logical order	How well you can make a task that is suitable for pupils your age	How might you present the task to pupils your age?	http://www.paf.ac.org/exhibitions/past/current-exhibitions.html