88% of all grades were a 4+ and 72% were a 5+.

81% of students secured a strong pass (5+) in Maths and 89% secured a strong pass (5+) in English.

79% of students gained a 5+ in both their Maths and English.

95% of students gained a 4+ in both their English and Maths.

Headteacher Mr McCullagh said "our Year 11 students have shown a great strength of character. They can take much pride in their amazing achievements against the odds. Our parents/carers, team of staff and school governors can also be incredibly proud. It was important to celebrate with the students this morning as they have demonstrated such remarkable resilience and determination. We look forward to continuing to work with them over the next two year period."
