

Term: One
Year group: Eleven
Subject: Ancient History
Topic: Roman Britain

Ancient History 'Home Learning'

This task menu shows what the students will be doing for each homework. The homework is based on the exam questions the students will be getting the different papers they will sit at GCSE. Completing these tasks will enable students to get feedback and make the appropriate improvement ready for formal assessments.

1

2

3

4

Home learning activity	Instructions	Support strategies
Knowledge Test 1.1	The first major homework will be a knowledge test on what they have learned up to that point.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Classwork books to be used- Model answers to help you with structure- Revision booklets on Google Classroom
Outline what happened in the... (6 marks)	The students will be given an event and they will have to give a detailed account of what happened. Work on the who what when where why basis.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Classwork books to be used- Model answers to help you with structure- Revision booklets on Google Classroom
Using details from the passage and your own knowledge explain why... (15 marks)	The students will be given a passage (ancient source) and they will need to explain why something happened using both the passage and their own knowledge.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Classwork books to be used- Model answers to help you with structure- Revision booklets on Google Classroom
Do you agree with the statement question (20 marks)	The students will be given a statement such as 'The main way Romans kept control of Britain was by crushing resistance' and the student will have to consider the statement and make a decision to what extent they agree with it.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Classwork books to be used- Model answers to help you with structure- Revision booklets on Google Classroom